OUR POLICY ON ANTI-SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Our Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy reflects a long-standing commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all of our business relationships, supported by the development and implementation of effective systems and controls.

We recognise that slavery and human trafficking can occur in many forms. Therefore, throughout this disclosure we use the terms “slavery and human trafficking” to encompass various forms of coerced labour. We believe that working in partnership with our clients, community stakeholders and supply chain in a sustainable way enables us to find practical, safer methods of ethical trading free from slavery and human trafficking.

OUR ANTI-SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING ASSURANCE PROCESS

As part of an initiative to identify and mitigate risk in respect of slavery and human trafficking, we have:

- Developed and agreed our Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy.
- Review on contracts with subcontractors to confirm their compliance with the Modern slavery Act. Suppliers and subcontractors are required to notify us as soon as they become aware of any instance of modern slavery or human trafficking taking place in their business or supply chain.
- Reviewed our recruitment processes to ensure they continue to be both transparent and thorough. We have robust procedures in place for vetting new employees and ensuring we are able to accurately confirm their identities.
- Security checks, which includes a right to work check, are conducted by our security teams on projects to ensure that all subcontractors and agency staff are legally allowed to.
- Ensure that all staff have a written contract of employment.

TRAINING

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and in our business, we will provide training to our staff that is proportionate to the level of risk.

They will be informed of the appropriate action to take if they suspect a case of slavery or human trafficking. This training includes:

- Introduction to modern slavery
- Human Trafficking
- Labour exploitation
- Hidden Slavery
- Legislation
- Warning signs
- Good business practices

DEVELOPING FOR THE FUTURE

As our approach to slavery and human trafficking develops, we will assess how well we are doing and whether additional procedures may be necessary. We are committed to reporting publicly about our performance each year.
